Community Volunteer Experience

I have been on the Board of Directors at Neighborhood House for three years. I regularly volunteer for their events and programs. I also volunteer through my church, Holy Family Catholic Church.

Have you previously served on a city commission:
No

If yes, please list which commission and the date of service

Professional and Employment Background

I worked in morning radio here in Peoria for 13 years on Lite Rock 107/Mix 106.9 with Randy Rundle. For the past two years, I've been in the Marketing and Communications Department at OSF HealthCare

Educational Background

BFA in Theatre with a minor in Broadcast News from Drake University.

State briefly why you wish to be considered for a city volunteer commission and what you would hope to accomplish if appointed In my role as Community Relations Coordinator, it's important for me to understand what's happening in the community we (OSF) serve. It's important for me to take part and give back to the community we serve. I hope to get OSF more involved in the community.

Would your service on a city commission be a conflict of interest for you?; No
