State briefly why you wish to be considered for a city volunteer commission and what you would hope to accomplish if appointed
After moving here from New Mexico I see tremendous potential for the area as it pertains to recreation, planning and quality of life. I want to use my unique skills and background to help make Peoria a better place to visit and live. I can contribute my experience in what other communities are doing in the realm of planing, recreation, and the built environment can help Peoria to attract and retain young talent, develop economies, and make it a destination for tourists.

Would your service on a city commission be a conflict of interest for you?;

* No
