Professional and Employment Background

I was the executive director of a small non profit whose mission is empowering families to improve their financial well-being through financial literacy and affordable housing. We helped more than three hundred low income families purchase a home. Doing so put over 30 million back into the community. Under my leadership at METEC we created programs that made it possible to integrate other asset-building programs to support clients when making financial decisions.”

We have developed several affordable housing programs instrumental in helping Improve the financial capacity of low income families.

Educational Background

BS. University of Tennessee

MS

State briefly why you wish to be considered for a city volunteer commission and what you would hope to accomplish if appointed I'm committed to stabilizing families and communities. I'm committed to HUD's AFFH rule in providing effective planning and creating programs that promote and create communities that are inclusive and free from discrimination.

Would your service on a city commission be a conflict of interest for you?; No
