Professional and Employment Background

I am currently a faculty attending physician and the physician site lead for University of Illinois College of Medicine's Family Medicine residency at the Family Medical Center. I practice full scope Family medicine including obstetrics and am responsible for our department's social determinants of health/equity curriculum.

Educational Background

Undergrad degree in Sociology and Women's Studies from Loyola University of Chicago Medical degree from Penn State University Completed residency training at UICOMP Family medicine residency here in Peoria High risk & surgical OB fellowship for Family medicine in Lawrence Massachusetts

State briefly why you wish to be considered for a city volunteer commission and what you would hope to accomplish if appointed My family has lived in Peoria for 5 years and I would like to be involved more in the community. I have an interest and background in equity work and see a lot of opportunity to be helpful for others in the community with sitting on the Fair Employment Commission. In my current practice I see a lot of patients who struggle to find work and have experienced discrimination with respect to this. I think my background offers a unique perspective and could be of service to others.

Would your service on a city commission be a conflict of interest for you?; No
