- * No

Professional and Employment Background

Worked for Caterpillar for 30 years (1963-1994). Retired 1/1/1994. I have lived in the Peoria since 1948.

Educational Background

I received a Bachelor of Science (Biology/Botany) from Illinois State University (12/19/1998).

My course study at ISU led to my being the lead author of a published paper on Illinois presettlement forest composition; and as a contributing author on a second paper modifying the method used by researchers to determine the density of presettlement forests.

State briefly why you wish to be considered for a city volunteer commission and what you would hope to accomplish if appointed
I think I could bring some expertise to Peoria's urban phytosociology.

Would your service on a city commission be a conflict of interest for you?;

- * No
