FY18 Overview

The convention center had a good year with conventions, assemblies and sporting coming in over budget. The arena experienced a cyclical decrease in concerts and an increase in entertainment events from prior year. The Broadway category in the theater did not have a multi-week anchor such as Wicked in FY17 which caused overall season ticket sales to be down by $468,000. Theater family and performances events also experienced a strong year. Indirect expenses were kept in line with savings occurring in the wages/benefits and heating categories.

FY19 Overview

The FY19 budget projects a 5.65% increase for revenues and a 7.54% increase for expenses versus FY18. Advertising revenues have been budgeted to remain flat. Indirect expenses are projected to increase by $465,000 versus FY18 with total personnel costs increasing by 10.07% with a third of the entire increase due to health care. Total personnel costs compared to FY17 are expected to increase by approximately 6.88%. Heating Fuel and insurance expense are budgeted to decrease with electricity and supplies expected to increase. The HRA subsidy is projected to be consistent from FY18.

Convention Center

The Convention Center has been budgeted for a decrease of 9.68% over FY18. Strong goals have been in Consumer and Sporting in order to help offset the projected decrease in conventions and banquets.

Arena

The Arena is projecting a cyclical increase of $194,000 in concerts, while we forecast an $181,000 decrease in entertainment events over FY18. Overall, the arena is budgeted for an $11,245 increase over the prior year.

Theater

FY19 booking goals for the Theater were increased in the concert and family categories. The Broadway category for the upcoming season has a four-event series is anchored by a 15-performance run of Disney's The Lion King with additional performances of Stomp, Finding Neverland, and Rent. The year-over-year difference in this category is a $539,000 increase and fully accounts for the tremendous increase in the Theater business in FY19.
