State briefly why you wish to be considered for a city volunteer commission and what you would hope to accomplish if appointed
I feel that my years of experience working with and making investments for customers and clients would be an asset to the Board. My years of work experience in Trust Banking make me very familiar with the concept of fiduciary responsibility. My law school experience may be helpful in dealing with the complexity of the statutes that govern the decisions that the Board must make

Would your service on a city commission be a conflict of interest for you?;

No
