Professional and Employment Background

23 years as a sales manager for Cosmoprof, a distributor of professional beauty supplies. Prior to that was a small business owner in Peoria.

Educational Background

Bachelors degree in market g from Indiana State University. Associates degree in traffic and transportation management from ICC. Licensed cosmetologist.

State briefly why you wish to be considered for a city volunteer commission and what you would hope to accomplish if appointed Living in older homes and neighborhoods since 1982 due to my passion for preserving the history within the structures, neighborhoods and community. Involvement with neighborhood and community preservation.

Would hope to bring a unique perspective of someone who cares deeply about this city and the issues that plague the older and historic segment of our city. I'd like to make a difference in the community thru working and learning more about the processes. To assist in the preservation of the history of our city and heritage neighborhoods to make them a place that people want to live and thrive.

Would your service on a city commission be a conflict of interest for you?; No
