Professional and Employment Background

Am the Regional Administrator for the Illinois Office of State Guardian, which serves as guardian for adults with disabilities. I have worked with persons w/disabilities since 1983 in varying capacities.

Educational Background

I have a Masters degree in Social Work, a Bachelors degree in Psychology and am a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW)

State briefly why you wish to be considered for a city volunteer commission and what you would hope to accomplish if appointed I'm passionate, both professionally and personally, about disability advocacy. In addition to my professional career, I have a young adult son with Down syndrome. I feel that it is all of our responsibility to ensure that our city is a place that is welcoming and supportive to people with disabilities. I would like to contribute to that effort.

Would your service on a city commission be a conflict of interest for you?; No
